You need HR tech & expertise tailored to manufacturing.

Manufacturing isn't like any other business. If you're in a leadership position at a manufacturing organization, you face challenges unique to your fast-paced, understaffed, and rapidly changing industry. Paycor is the only HCM provider that offers a specialized program for manufacturing, based on 30 years in the HR software business and 30+ years with specific expertise serving leaders of manufacturing organizations.

30 Years

of Industry Experience

Leaders in manufacturing don't need one-size-fits-all solutions. They need technology and expertise tailored to their industry.

We believe that with the right technology, partnership, and thought leadership, there's nothing you can't accomplish. Paycor's HR Center of Excellence (HR COE) is the go-to resource for expert advice and inspiration.

To create the HR COE, we supplemented our 30+ years of experience serving business leaders with user group sessions, one-on-one interviews with HR professionals and business leaders, a deep dive into third-party research, and ongoing analysis of our own proprietary data. We've also surveyed hundreds of HR departments, represented by thousands of professionals at every stage in their careers.

The goal of the HR Center of Excellence is to help leaders see the tangible returns on investing in modern HR. Think of the HR COE as your action plan, grounded in Paycor's data, experience, and research, designed with a singular focus on helping businesses optimize HR to make a lasting impact on their organizations.
